Gold and Platinum Challenges

During the second quarter, Gold Challenge participants had to earn at least 1,000 points during each week of the challenge, and Platinum Challenge participants were required to earn at least 2,500 points per week.

Participation in the Gold and Platinum challenges continues to grow rapidly and the second quarter has produced 354 successful Gold and 126 successful Platinum challengers. George Macias, Correctional Officer III at the Robertson Unit, earned the most points among the agency's Platinum challengers. Lyssa Elliott, Inventory and Store Specialist II with Manufacturing and Logistics, was the point leader among Gold Challenge participants. ●
